How

TO BOOK

From inquiry to wedding morning, we guide you every step of the way. Booking your bridal beauty team should feel effortless.

Here is what the Lustre Chic process looks like.

How to Book

1 INQUIRE

Begin your bridal beauty experience by sharing your wedding date, getting-ready location, estimated bridal party size, and the hair and makeup services you're interested in.
Our team will review your details, confirm availability, and help determine the best service arrangements for your wedding morning. Once we've gathered the necessary information, we'll prepare a customized proposal outlining your requested services, pricing, and booking details.

2 SECURE YOUR DATE

Once you're ready to move forward, securing your wedding date is simple! We'll send you an electronic contract to review and sign, along with instructions for submitting your retainer. Once both are completed, your wedding date is officially reserved on our calendar, and we can begin coordinating the details of your bridal beauty experience. Dates are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis and cannot be held without a completed contract and retainer.

3 SCHEDULE YOUR TRIAL

Your bridal trial is an opportunity to collaborate with your artists, explore your inspiration, and perfect a look that reflects your personal style and wedding-day vision. While optional, we recommend scheduling your trial 3–6 months before your wedding. Appointments are available weekdays and Sundays, with a full hair and makeup trial typically lasting 2.5–3 hours. It's the perfect time to refine the details and feel confident in your look before the big day.

4 PLAN THE DETAILS

As your wedding approaches, we'll confirm your final service count, create your beauty timeline, and make sure every detail is in place. We'll coordinate artist arrival times, getting-ready logistics, and the order of services to ensure everything runs smoothly. Our goal is to have every detail thoughtfully planned, so you can relax and enjoy your wedding morning with confidence.
